to Collect the arrears of subscriptions promised towards the construction.

3) The president now reports that he has sent registered requisitions to the gentlemen in arrear and he has submitted a list shewing their names. In the list the names of messers Anantha Thirtha Rao, Pensioned Executive Engr and S Sundaram Iyer Advocate are not ~~entered~~ included, the reason alleged being that they have left the province. It is submitted that ~~it~~ their address as they are men of position can very easily be found out and considering that Rs 250/- and Rs 150/- are due from them respectively steps should be taken to ~~request them to pay up~~ collect from the amounts due ~~by~~ them

4) As regards the question of what should be done in case of non-payment, it is submitted that no further action can be taken ~~by~~ beyond repeated demands. The subscriptions are purely voluntary and their payments ~~are~~ not legally enforceable

5) As regards the 2nd question

Sir,

With reference to Government Proceedings No 4019-2 LB 397-07-11 dated the 30th October 08, asking me to take vigorous steps to collect the arrears promised for the construction of the Chamaraj Memorial Hall at Shimoga and to recoup the advance of Rs 2250 Sanctioned to be paid out of Municipal funds, I have the honor to state that I have sent registered requisitions to the Gentlemen whose names are enclosed to pay up the Subscription noted against their names. This amount totals up to Rs 933-14-6 and if any of it is paid I shall advise Government of it. If the Gentlemen do not pay in spite of my request, I shall act as may be directed by Government in the matt.

I request to be informed whether the Subscriptions promised from Taluks should also be called for from the rayats. Rs 433-8-0 is due from Hosmali and Rs 82-0-0 from Sorab, making a grand total of Rs 1449-6-6 only against Rs 2250 sanctioned to be paid out of the Municipality.

I have the honor to be,

Sir

Your most obedient Servant.
